Board Voice Purpose

Board Voice champions the health and well-being of the people of B.C. through:

- a) Advocating with respect to issues that are of concern to communities and the not-for-profit community services sector;
- b) Promoting the value of collaborative, high quality not-for-profit community-based social services;
- c) Promoting public participation through engaging not-for-profit boards in projects and activities at the community, regional and provincial levels;
- d) Promoting volunteerism and good governance by providing training and resources to volunteer boards operating in the not-for-profit community services sector.
